

Current Exhibition

Women on the Move: An Exhibition of Travel Books

3 September to 23 December 2024, Thomas Fisher Library, Toronto.

Why did women travel? How did they engage with the world during their journey? What did they choose to share when they returned? Women's travel stories tell us about much more than the places they visit. Their carefully crafted narratives and keepsakes suggest intrepid adventurers, privileged tourists, devoted companions, tireless proselytizers, perceptive scientists, or pioneers and colonizers. Through their shared experiences, made possible by a burgeoning travel book industry, they communicate their relationship to empire, participation in historical events, and inclusion and exclusion from many parts of culture at home and abroad.

This exhibition is curated by David Fernández, Ksenya Kiebusinski, and Elizabeth Ridolfo. To view some of the items on display as part of the exhibition in a storymaps exhibit, click here.

Upcoming Exhibitions

De cerebro: An Exhibition on the Human Brain

27 January to 25 April 2025, Thomas Fisher Library, Toronto.

What is the nature of the human brain? While the modern study of anatomy has been in practice for well over five hundred years, the brain remains...

Learn More

ONLINE EXHIBITIONS

VIEW ALL

Celebrating Black Voices: Black History Resources at Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library

Flickering of the Flame: Print and the Reformation

How Does My Garden Grow: The Education of a Gardener

Humane letters: Bruce Rogers Designer of Books and Art

PREVIOUS EXHIBITIONS

VIEW ALL

Kant and some Post-Kantians: A Tercentenary Exhibition

The Immersive Movable Object: Contemporary Pop-up Books

A World of Fancies: The Toy Theatre and the Living Image

Emerging Patterns: Data Visualization Throughout History

FOLLOW THE FISHER LIBRARY

@ Instagram Twitter Facebook YouTube Flickr